

Why Nott?

A Scholarly Discussion of Building Names

What's in a name?

An expert panel explores how a campus remembers its past by the names placed on buildings. Join the conversation happening at colleges across the nation to study our history and its influence on the present.

Tuesday, September 6th at 6:30pm
Gorgas Library
Room 205

Featured Panelist

Dr. Alfred Brophy, Parker Distinguished professor at Law at Univ. of North Carolina

Dr. Thomas Herwig, Assistant Professor of Religious Studies, History and Ethics in the Honors College

Dr. Hilary Green, Assistant Professor of History in the Department of Gender and Race Studies

Hosted by the Honors College Assembly with support from the Blackburn Institute and the SPLC on Campus
